THE INDIAN PERFORMING RIGHT SOCIETY LTD., (Limited by Guarantee)

(an association of Composers, authors & owners of musical copyright)

Regd Office A-12, Meherina, Nepean Road, BOMBAY-6.

The Indian Performing Right Society Ltd., (hereinafter referred to as 'IPRS' or 'The Society') incorporated in the State of Maharashtra on the 23rd August, 1969 (Certificate No. 14359) has authority to grant Licences for performance in public of all existing and future Indian Musical Works in which Copyright may subsist in India and the owners of copyright in which are members of the said Society.

And whereas IPRS now proposes to grant licences for the public performances of music in its repertoire; the statement of fees charges or royalties which it proposes to collect until further notice is as follows:—

Tariff 1. Cinemas—For annual licence :

- (a) Cinemas (touring or static but excluding film shows at Clubs, Institutes etc.) Licence fee shall be assessed by taking the following percentage rates of monetary seating capacity of the cinema (less entertainment tax) multiplied by 365 for an annual fee in respect of films screened containing music controlled by the Society.

A. Class A : for Cinemas in cities with population of 300,000 or more.

- (i) giving one show daily 2% of monetary seating capacity.
(ii) " two shows " 3% —do—
(iii) " three " 3½% —do—
(iv) " four " 4% —do—

B. Class B : for Cinemas in towns with population between 50,000 and 300,000.

- (i) giving one show daily 1½% of monetary seating capacity.
(ii) " two shows " 2½% —do—
(iii) " three " 2½% —do—

C. Class C : for Cinemas in towns with population not exceeding 50,000.

- (i) giving one show daily 1% of monetary seating capacity.
(ii) " two shows " 1½% —do—
(iii) " three " 1½% —do—
(iv) " four " 2% —do—

- (b) The fee, in the case of a cinema failing to respond and furnish required data for assessment within 10 days from receiving a request from the Society may at the option of the Society be assessed at 2% of the monetary seating capacity, in which case the Annual Licence fee for the current Licence year shall be :

365 times of 2% of the monetary seating capacity multiplied by the number of shows given daily during the preceding licence year.

(c) For shorter period licence :

Where a licence is required for a period shorter than a year, or for a short season, the Society's licence fee shall be :—

- (i) for a cinema showing pro rata as above, without films on 270 or more any surcharge.
days during the year :
(ii) for a cinema showing Pro rata as above plus 10% films on fewer than 270 surcharge.
days during the year :

Minimum charge for a licence : Rs. 100/-

NOTE I : In calculating the licence fee 50 paise or more will be rounded off to the next rupee and less than 50 paise will be ignored.

NOTE II : Annual Licence fee shall be payable in advance in respect of each Licence Year.

NOTE III : The Society may at its option rely on the literature published by Cinematograph Exhibitors' Associations giving population figures irrespective of whether or not any up to date State or Central publication is available for deciding on the class and table of percentages applicable to each cinema.

NOTE IV : Monetary seating capacity (box office) shall apply to all performance including those sponsored and/or on fixed rental. Any payments received by a cinema in excess of the monetary seating capacity shall be deemed to be and added to the monetary seating capacity for the purpose of calculating licence fee.
